

WORLD FANTASY CONVENTION 2021

Author Guest of Honour

Nisi Shawl

Artist Guest of Honour

John Picacio

Editor Guest of Honour

André-François Ruaud

Special Guest

Owl Goingback

Special Guest

Yves Meynard

Toastmaster

Christine Taylor-Butler

Montréal, November 4–7, 2021

www.wfc2021.org

Fantasy, Imagination, and the Dreams of Youth

Since J.K. Rowling introduced us to Harry Potter, the field of young adult fantasy has grown from being popular to becoming a dominant category of 21st century literature, bringing millions of new readers to hundreds of new authors. While focusing on younger protagonists, these stories appeal to all ages, including mature readers reminded of their own age of wonder, and of the challenges everyone faces in adapting to the obligations and opportunities of an adult world where new rules and situations are not always understood. The genre celebrates fantasy fiction in all of its forms: epic, dark, paranormal, urban, and other varieties. We invite members to share what they enjoy, what they have learned, what they have written themselves, and what they hope to see coming in the field of young adult fantasy fiction.

Venue

The Hotel Bonaventure
900 Rue de la Gauchetière O.
Montréal, QC H5A 1E4
<http://hotelbonaventure.com/en/>

Registration Fees:

Attending memberships are $150 USD/$200 CAD, beginning November 3rd, 2019

ACT NOW! The rate will increase on December 1st, 2019

Supporting membership rate: $50 USD/$70 CAD

Register online at: <https://wfc2021.org/index.php/registration>

Payment Information:

By mail:

Send your name and contact information to:
103-2077 Wilson Ave.
Montréal, QC
H4A 0A3
CANADA

Please make checks payable to “WFC 2021”

For any inquiries, contact us at info@wfc2021.org

Please Note: Your membership in WFC 2021 entitles you to submit a nomination ballot for the World Fantasy Awards for three consecutive years (beginning with 2021). Your contact information will NOT be shared with the WFC 2022 and 2023 chairpersons, unless you indicate otherwise on your registration form. This means you will NOT be able to nominate for the 2022 and 2023 World Fantasy Awards.

www.wfc2021.org