

WORLD FANTASY CONVENTION 2021

Welcome to the first progress report for the 2021 World Fantasy Convention! We are pressing on, in times of Covid, and continuing to plan a wonderful in person convention in Montréal, Canada.

We have a stunning guest list and a superlative team for both planning and the creation of the gathering not to be missed.

We will be at the Hôtel Bonaventure, an iconic landmark in the city. The hotel is located in the heart of downtown and just outside the Old Port of Montréal. It is near major roads, right across the street from Gare Centrale, the Montréal train station, and is directly connected to two Metro stations, making it easily accessible for both motorists and public transport users. We will be able to enjoy a lavish 2.5 acres of gardens with streams inhabited by ducks and fish as well as a year-round outdoor heated pool.

Our committee is busy excitedly planning a convention that will surpass your every expectation. Our theme will be YA fantasy. The field of young adult fantasy has grown from being popular to becoming a dominant category of 21st century literature, bringing millions of new readers to hundreds of new authors. We are working on a diverse program that will explore this genre that celebrates fantasy fiction in all of its forms: epic, dark, paranormal, urban, and other varieties. We invite members to share what they enjoy, what they have learned, what they have written themselves, and what they hope to see coming in the field of young adult fantasy fiction.

We look forward to seeing you all in Montréal!

Diane Lacey
Chair

Diversity Statement

The committee for the 2021 World Fantasy Convention is unconditionally devoted to promoting diversity within our convention. We will have a Diversity and Inclusion Committee on programming. We are also actively recruiting people to create better cultural, gender, and community representation across all aspects of our convention, including the Art Show and the Dealers Room. These are still, for the most part, early days in the planning of our convention, which picks up in earnest after WFC 2020, but we are looking at ways to increase diversity and inclusion both in our membership and in our convention committee and volunteer base. We agree that in the past there have been problems in the handling of community concerns regarding sensitive and serious issues and we are taking steps to address these problems. We want our convention to be a friendly, accepting, comfortable place for BIPOC, queer, disabled, and other marginalized writers and fantasy enthusiasts.

Furthermore, the Montreal World Fantasy Convention abhors the inequalities Indigenous, Marginalised, and Historically Underrepresented People are confronted with in policing and other aspects of society around the world, including Canada, and we stand with them. We are committed to ensuring that all underrepresented people are given equal opportunities to participate in all aspects of our convention.

Fantasy, Imagination, and the Dreams of Youth

For many years the subgenre of ‘Young Adult’ has been incredibly popular. We grew up on Brian Jacques’s Redwall and Andre Norton’s Fantasy and Science Fiction, both. Many of us are familiar with Tamora Pierce’s Circle of Magic and Defender of the Small series. Many libraries and bookstores in the early years considered all SF&F as ‘children’s literature’; a stigma still unfortunately strong today. Since the success of the Harry Potter series of books, the field of young adult fantasy has become much more acceptable to the mainstream, growing from being merely popular to becoming a dominant category of 21st century literature, bringing millions of new readers to hundreds of new authors.

While focusing on younger protagonists, these stories appeal to all ages, including mature readers reminded of their own age of wonder, and of the challenges everyone faces in adapting to the obligations and opportunities of an adult world where new rules and situations are not always understood. Using a milieu of magic and mystery allows writers to make stories where anything is possible, beyond the constraints of mainstream literature. Fantasy elements also allow allegorical exploration of issues of authority and responsibility, peer pressure, and other forms of economic and social conflict. Characters based on mythology or pure imagination can transcend conventional definitions and roles and explore questions of diversity and gender, racial, and cultural identities.

In blurring the boundaries between children’s and adult fiction, fantasy gives us many delightful worlds and creatures to deal with real emotional and social values. Young adult fiction leads readily into Magic Realism and Slipstream. The genre celebrates fantasy fiction in all of its forms: epic, dark, paranormal, urban, and other varieties.

We invite members to share what they enjoy, what they have learned, what they have written themselves, and what they hope to see coming in the field of young adult fantasy fiction.

Guests of Honour

Nisi Shawl – Author Guest of Honour

Multiple award-winner Nisi Shawl wrote the 2016 Nebula finalist and James Tiptree, Jr. Honor novel Everfair, an alternate history in which the Congo overthrows King Leopold II’s genocidal regime. In 2005, with Cynthia

Ward, they co-wrote Writing the Other: A Practical Approach, now the standard text on diverse character representation in the imaginative genres, and the basis of their online and in-person classes of the same name. They’re a founder of the inclusivity-focused Carl Brandon Society and have served on the Clarion West Writers Workshop’s board of directors for over twenty years.

Shawl’s dozens of acclaimed stories have appeared in Analog and Asimov’s Science Fiction magazines, among other publications. Many are collected in their 2009 Tiptree Award winner Filter House (2008, Aqueduct), and in two more recent volumes: Exploring Dark Fiction #3: A Primer to Nisi Shawl (2018, Dark Moon) and Talk Like a Man (2019, PM Press). Their “Everfair-adjacent” story “Vulcanization” appears in Houghton Mifflin Harcourt’s Best American Science Fiction and Fantasy of 2017, and their short story “Black Betty” was selected by LeVar Burton for inclusion in his live podcast series LeVar Burton Reads.

Shawl edited New Suns: Original Speculative Fiction by People of Color (2019, Solaris), recipient of the Locus, Brave New Words, and Fiyah Magazine awards. They have edited and co-edited several other anthologies, such as Stories for Chip: A Tribute to Samuel R. Delany; and Strange Matings: Science Fiction, Feminism, African American Voices, and Octavia E. Butler; both Locus Award finalists. They contribute reviews and columns to The Seattle Times, Ms. Magazine, The Washington Post, and Tor.com. They have lectured at Duke University, Spelman College, the University of Hawaii Manoa, and elsewhere.

Shawl’s Middle Grade historical fantasy, Speculation, is due out in 2021 from Lee & Low. Currently they are finishing a draft of Kinning, a sequel to Everfair.

John Picacio – Artist Guest of Honour

John Picacio is one of the most acclaimed American artists in fantasy, horror, and science fiction over the last decade, creating best-selling art for George R. R. Martin’s A Song of Ice and Fire series, as well as major cover illustrations for authors such as Michael Moorcock, Harlan Ellison, Brenda Cooper, James Dashner, Frederik Pohl, Dan Simmons, Mark Chadbourn, Sheri S. Tepper, James Tiptree, Jr., Lauren Beukes, Jeffrey Ford, Joe R. Lansdale, and many, many more. Major clients include Penguin Random House, Tor Books, HarperCollins, Scholastic, Simon & Schuster, Saga Press, Subterranean Press, Baen Books, Dark Horse, and many more. His accolades include the World Fantasy Award, two Hugo Awards, eight Chesley Awards, two Locus Awards, two International Horror Guild Awards, and the Inkpot Award. He is the founder of the creative imprint, Lone Boy, which has become the launchpad for his Loteria Grande cards, a bold contemporary re-imagining of the classic Mexican game of chance. For more, please visit www.johnpicacio.com and his Twitter feed at @JohnPicacio.

André-François Ruaud – Editor Guest of Honour

André-François Ruaud is a French publisher and writer who lives in Bordeaux (France). He is the author of some twenty essays about science fiction, fantasy and crime fiction. He has also written novels and children books, most recently an alternative history series under the pen name of Olav Koulikov. As a publisher he has, since 2004, managed an independent publishing house, Les Moutons électriques (“Electric Sheep”, in French), specializing in SF and fantasy and focusing on original French-language works.

Owl Goingback – Special Guest

Owl Goingback has been writing professionally for over thirty years, and is the author of numerous novels, children’s books, screenplays, magazine articles, and short stories. He is a Bram Stoker Award Winner, a three-time Stoker Award Nominee, a Nebula Award Nominee, and a Storytelling World Awards Honor Recipient. His books include Crota, Darker Than Night, Evil Whispers, Breed, Shaman Moon, Coyote Rage, Eagle Feathers, and The Gift. Owl’s short story collection, Tribal Screams, was published in 2018. The Coffee Shop of Horrors was created as Owl Goingback’s Tribal Screams roasted chestnut flavored coffee to tie-in with the collection. Owl was also one of eight writers chosen for DC Entertainment’s 2016 Talent Development Workshop, and recently added comic book writer to his professional resume.

In addition to writing under his own name, Owl has ghostwritten several books for Hollywood celebrities. He has lectured across the United States on the customs and folklore of the American Indians, served in the military, owned a restaurant/lounge, and worked as a cemetery caretaker.

Yves Meynard – Special Guest

Yves Meynard was born in 1964, in the city of Québec, spent most of his life in Longueuil, but moved to Ottawa in 2013. He has been active in Québec SF circles since 1986, serving as literary editor for the magazine Solaris from 1994 to 2001. Since 1986, he has published nearly forty short stories in French (in Solaris, imagine..., Yellow Submarine, and others) and twenty in English. His work in French has earned him five Boréal and six Aurora Awards, along with the Grand Prix de la Science-Fiction et du Fantastique Québécois, Québec’s highest award in the field, in 1994.

His first novel in English, The Book of Knights (Tor, 1998), was a Mythopoeic Award finalist; Chrysanthe, his second, appeared in 2012 from Tor. CZP published a collection of his short stories, Angels & Exiles, in 2015.

He has published many books in French, among them the novels Le livre des chevaliers (Alire, 1999), Suprématie (Brageionne, 2009) and Les Marches de la lune morte (Alire, 2015). The French translation of Chrysanthe was published by Alire.

Yves holds a Ph.D. in Computer Science from the Université de Montréal and earns a living as a software developer.

Christine Taylor-Butler – Toastmaster

Christine has been writing full-time for close to two decades. A graduate of MIT, she’s authored more than eighty books for children and young adults. Her photo essay, “Sacred Mountain” received praise from Kirkus Reviews and the Smithsonian’s Asian Pacific American Program.

Her shift in career was predicated by her role on MIT’s Educational Council where she met teens too shy to admit they read fantasy and science fiction. As a result of her advocacy she received MIT’s George B. Morgan award for excellence. Her current project is the The Lost Tribes, a speculative series about teens who discover their lives may be a lie. The series is illustrated by Patrick Arrasmith, who is a genius.

Christine and her husband, Ken, live in Kansas City, part of Tornado Alley, where they serve as personal servants to several cats and fish in a brick house that can’t easily be blown away.

Registration

Membership types

There are two types of membership: Attending and Supporting. Either type can be transferred; a supporting membership can be converted into an attending membership.

Attending Membership

Everyone attending the convention (including dealers, artists, and program participants) or any of its events must have a valid membership and a badge. Additionally, the purchase of a membership to World Fantasy Convention 2021 indicates your acceptance of and compliance with all convention policies. Please see the Policies page of this website for details. An attending membership is necessary for those who plan to attend WFC 2021 in Montréal, Québec, Canada. Attending members have access to all convention activities. Each attending member will receive the souvenir program book, a book bag full of books, a name badge, and other items offered at registration. Membership includes the ability to submit nominations for the World Fantasy Awards for 2021 and the next two years.

Please note: attending memberships are limited in number. Once that limit has been met, interested people will be added to a waiting list and contacted as openings become available. Please watch our website for updated membership numbers.

Supporting Membership

Supporting membership is for those who do not plan to attend the convention. Supporting members will receive the souvenir program book, book bag, but not books, and other items offered at registration. Membership includes the ability to submit nominations for the World Fantasy Awards for 2021 and the subsequent two years. Supporting memberships may be converted to an attending membership if the cap has not been reached.

Membership rates

We take payments in both Canadian (CAD) and United States Dollars (USD).

The current rates are as follows:

Attending memberships. USD 200 / CAD 270.

Supporting memberships. USD 50 / CAD 70.

In the past it has been customary to increase the membership rates a few days following the previous WFC. Because the current times are far from customary, World Fantasy 2021 has decided that these rates will continue to hold at least until the end of December 2020.

Converting Memberships

Supporting memberships may be upgraded to attending memberships as long as there are still memberships available. Conversions will require a fee equal to the difference between attending and supporting memberships. Please contact registration for details on how to proceed.

Transferring Memberships

If you wish to transfer your membership, please send an email to registration@wfc2021.org, or a letter to our postal address, found on our website.

Please include your name and contact information, as well as the name and contact information of the person to whom you wish to transfer your membership.

Transfer requests must be received by October 15th, 2021.

A final note on memberships

World Fantasy Convention 2021 reserves the right to refuse or refund memberships as deemed appropriate in order to ensure the safety and comfort of all members.

Code of Conduct

World Fantasy exists for the enjoyment and enrichment of its members and community. Although we believe our members and attendees as a whole are rational and responsible adults, this Code of Conduct seeks to ensure that the behavior of any person or group does not disturb the membership as a whole or detract from the relaxed and comfortable atmosphere of our events.

It is important that you read and understand this Code. Anyone who attends World Fantasy is expected to follow this Code for the entire duration of the event.

World Fantasy is prepared to deal with any issues related to the Code in as rapid and efficient a manner as possible should they occur. We thank our members and attendees for their assistance in making World Fantasy events enjoyable experiences for everyone. Have fun – just please remember to be courteous to those around you while doing so!

World Fantasy values free expression of opinions and open discourse; this policy is not established to limit those.

Behavior Policy

All World Fantasy events should be an experience where everyone feels welcomed and comfortable.

Discrimination (based on, but not limited to, gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or physical/mental disability) is not tolerated. Harassment of any kind is not tolerated. If someone tells you “no” or asks you to leave them alone, your business with them is done.

If you feel that you are being discriminated against or harassed, or if you notice someone behaving inappropriately (such as violating hotel or convention policies), we respectfully suggest the following:

If you feel comfortable doing so, point out the inappropriate behavior to the person(s) involved. Often this will solve the problem immediately.

If you do not feel comfortable talking with the person(s) involved or if talking to them does not resolve the issue, please report the situation immediately. Try to provide a name, badge name/number and/or physical description of the person(s) involved. Note that we need to know during the event about any incidents in order to take action.

Upon receipt of a complaint, an authorized committee member will be delegated to create a report of the incident, including talking to those involved and any witnesses, and work with the Chair of the convention to decide on appropriate action. World Fantasy will keep private the identities of persons involved as much as possible, restricting the identities to those parties with a genuine need to know in order to perform their duties. Disclosure of any identifying information of those involved in a complaint, or details about the complaint, by any staff of World Fantasy, beyond that described above, without the consent of those involved may be viewed as harassment and responded to accordingly. World Fantasy will be happy to help participants contact hotel security or local law enforcement, provide escorts, or otherwise assist members to feel safe for the duration of the convention.

Privacy, Photographs, and Recording Electronic Information

Photography and video and/or audio recordings are frequently made by World Fantasy during events. The likenesses of event attendees and members may appear in those recordings. Attendees and members agree to assign without compensation the use of their likeness in promotional material.

Personal Photography / Recordings:

Please be polite and ask before taking photographs or recordings of attendees and members whenever possible. Remember that just because someone is in costume does not mean that they are automatically granting permission to be photographed. Video and audio recording and photography for personal archival use only is generally acceptable unless individuals make it clear that they do not want to be photographed or recorded. In that case, any photographing or recording them is expressly forbidden.

Revocation of Membership

World Fantasy reserves the right to revoke membership from and eject anyone at any time from a World Fantasy event without a refund.

Failure to adhere to any of these policies may result in possible consequences that include but are not limited to:

- Talking with all parties involved and attempting to mediate a solution
- Issuing verbal warnings
- Revoking memberships and requesting that the person(s) leave the event
- Involving hotel or facility staff or security
- Contacting local law enforcement
- Banning of attendance at and membership in World Fantasy, including any post-World Fantasy events.

Interpretation

World Fantasy reserves the right to amend these rules at any time without prior or posted notice and reserves the sole right of interpretation. Please keep in mind that these rules involve, of course, “worst-case” scenarios and are put in place to ensure the safety and comfort of our members. They are not all-inclusive; in all cases, the singular rule that supersedes all others is, “Any action or behavior that is illegal or causes significant interference with event operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects World Fantasy’s relationship with its guests, its venue, or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in revocation of membership privileges.”

Accessibility Statement

We are committed to providing to the best of our abilities the best possible experience to all our attendees, including those who need visual or auditory interpretive assistance or have limited mobility, or who require other assistance.

Programming will take place on one fully accessible, recently renovated floor. The Hotel Bonaventure also has several sleeping rooms modified for accessibility; these rooms can also be rented with the adjoining room.

The accessible rooms are provided with roll-in shower and support bars. The adapted shower chair and toilet bowl can be added. The hotel also offers a 24-hour phone support. In the rooms the bed side tables are lower as well as the door handle and the peephole.

If you don’t require the accessible rooms but, for accessibility reasons, would prefer a room close to the elevators, we would be happy to accommodate you. For this, or any other accessibility issues, please contact accessibility@wfc2021.org.

Privacy Policy

This policy includes information on what data World Fantasy Convention 2021 (WFC 2021) collects, how we collect it, and how we use it. The personal information collected by WFC 2021 is stored and managed in compliance with Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

Changes to this Policy

WFC 2021 may change this policy. When changes are made, we will update our website with the changes.

General Information

In regard to the storage and management of the data collected by WFC 2021, the convention acts to ensure that all personal data is:

- Collected for lawful purposes
- Processed legally and fairly
- Relevant and not excessive
- Kept up to date for accuracy

- Kept secure
- Only accessed by authorised WFC 2021 staff
- Not shared without permission

How we Use this Data

In order to conduct the business of WFC 2021, we collect personal data submitted to us by people who interact with our convention in order to provide the agreed upon services and to share information and updates regarding our services and events.

Personal Data

WFC 2021's personal data includes information, facts, and interests that identify and are tied to living people, including such things as name, contact information, and professional history. Sensitive and personal data, as defined by PIPEDA, may also be collected from some individuals.

Required Data

A variety of data types may be requested and collected for use by WFC 2021 for verification purposes.

For potential programme participants, Programme also requests information about areas of interest and experience in order to place participants on programme items.

Sensitive Data

Sensitive data is collected for the purposes of making health-based accommodations, enhancing diversity, and identifying topics of a sensitive nature that potential programme participants would be comfortable talking about as part of the WFC 2021 programme. Sensitive data may include such things as racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, disability or medical needs, etc.

Any member may also request to have their personal information changed and/or deleted in the WFC 2021 data systems by contacting from the email address that we have on file to make their request.

Unsubscribe from Email

Any member may subscribe from any mailing list at any time. Simply respond to sender and clearly request to unsubscribe.

If you wish to be added to our convention-wide do not contact (DNC) list please email . Please be aware this will mean that, with the exception of urgent access information (information such as instructions how to gain access to the convention venue, pick up your membership or any urgent issues related to either) you will NOT be contacted electronically by WFC 2021. This includes Pre-Con Information such as Chair Updates, Progress Reports, Hotel Information, World Fantasy Awards, and other relevant Pre-Con Information. This also includes Divisional level items such Programme, Access, Exhibits, World Fantasy Awards, Promotions etc.

Destroying Data

All data collected on individuals will be changed, deleted, or modified upon request. In addition, personal data in the WFC 2021 systems will be deleted twenty-five months after the convention unless we have a legal requirement to retain it.

Securing Data

Data collected by us will be stored securely and managed through appropriate protections. Our staff has been instructed of this policy and are in compliance with PIPEDA guidelines.

Data Processing

All third-party data processors contracted by WFC 2021, which store, access, and house information via cloud services, on websites, in apps, etc. will be compliant with relevant data regulations.

Contact

If you have any questions about this policy or WFC 2021's data policies, please contact WFC 2021 at privacy@wfc2021.org.

About Montréal

Situated on an island in the St. Lawrence river, Montréal is the largest city in the province of Québec and North America's largest French speaking city and the second largest French speaking city in the world, after Paris. However, most Montréalers – especially downtown – are bilingual so getting by if you only speak English will be no problem. The city has been a destination for many immigrants and is widely considered to be one of North America's most cosmopolitan cities. Unquestionably modern with all of its old-world charm, Montréal remains a city of great allure, vivacity, and fun.

Montréal is home to more than 30 museums, covering arts, science, and history, including the Montréal Museum of Fine Arts, home to one of the richest, most encyclopedic permanent collections in North America. Visitors can also enjoy visits of Old Montréal, walks in the Botanical Garden or on Mont-Royal.

In addition, Montréal has the highest number of restaurants per capita in Canada and the second highest in North America. The restaurant scene is very cosmopolitan with menus from around the world.

We look forward to welcoming you in 2021!

Hôtel Bonaventure

The 2021 World Fantasy Convention will take place at the Hôtel Bonaventure.

The Bonaventure offers elegance in a unique setting in Montréal. Winner of several awards for its high level of quality and service, the hotel continues to maintain its distinctive personality and character. The Bonaventure Montreal has 2 restaurants, a bar and an executive lounge. It has a sumptuous 2.5 acres of gardens with streams inhabited by ducks and fish as well as a year-round outdoor heated pool. Nestled on the top two floors of Place Bonaventure, the hotel is at the center of the city top attractions, to ensure you hospitality that will make you feel at home during the convention.

The Hôtel Bonaventure Montreal has 397 spacious rooms and suites offering incomparable comfort and an exceptional view of downtown Montreal or the landscaped gardens.

All rooms and suites offer a smoke-free environment. They also feature a work desk with ergonomic chair, a safe as well as several amenities to ensure comfort and simplicity at its best.

Our room rate is CAD 209 per night, plus local tax which is currently 3.5% Occupancy Tax, 5% Goods & Services Tax, and 9.975% Provincial.

Hotel parking is currently CAD 24 per day self-parking for hotel guests; Valet parking is also available, currently at CAD 39 per day.

World Fantasy Banquet and Awards Ceremony

The annual World Fantasy Banquet will take place in the afternoon on Sunday November 7th, the final day of the convention. Tickets to the banquet are not included in your membership but are an optional, additional cost. Detailed information regarding the banquet and tickets will be available closer to the convention. We will be working closely with the hotel to assure that those with special dietary needs are accommodated.

There will be space to allow members that do not attend the banquet to watch the World Fantasy Awards Ceremony following the banquet.

World Fantasy Award Ballots

All registered 2019, 2020, and 2021 members are eligible to nominate for the 2021 World Fantasy Awards. The nomination form will be distributed in Progress Reports Two and Three.

Progress Report Two will be issued in January 2021 and Progress Report Three will be issued in May 2021.

The nomination period will end in May 2021. The World Fantasy Convention Board of Directors policy requires that at least one hard-copy nomination ballot be mailed to the members, attending and supporting, of the upcoming WFC and the two preceding WFCs.

Please send any postal address corrections or changes to registration@wfc2021.org by January 2021.

Art Show

Artists exhibiting at the 2021 World Fantasy Convention Art Show are selected by jury. The deadline for artist applications will be June 1st 2021. Further instructions and application forms will be posted in early 2021. Please contact the Art Show Head at artshow@wfc2021.org if you have any questions.

Dealers' Room

Space in the World Fantasy Convention Dealers' Room is also juried. Books are given priority, preferably new or collector's editions. Art and art-quality hand-made jewelry may also be included. Please note that costumes, costume parts, knickknacks, games, and toys are not considered appropriate for the WFC Dealers' Room. Please direct questions to the Dealers' Room Head at dealers@wfc2021.org.

Dealers' Room application forms and instructions will be posted before the end of February 2021.

Mass Autograph Signing

The traditional mass autographing session will be held on Friday evening, November 5th. Each member of WFC 2021 will be provided a name tent so that those who wish may sign autographs. The Mass Signing will continue until midnight, or until the signers and seekers of autographs are done, whichever comes first. Refreshments will be served throughout the signing.

Book Bags

All attending members of World Fantasy Conventions receive a complimentary bag of fantasy and science fiction books that have been donated by publishers or authors.

The contents of each bag are luck of the draw. There is one exception to this rule. If you are on-site Wednesday afternoon and help for at least three hours sorting the boxes of books and filling book bags, you may fill your own book bag. Furthermore, if you register with a companion, please let the staff know. They may be able to pick from different bag piles to increase the odds that you and your companion get more variety.

We understand that different people have different tastes. A book exchange table will be located near Registration. Place the books that you do not want on the table, and exchange them for ones you prefer.
